

The Girl Who Lost Her Country

Puzzle from <https://www.puzzle-maker.com>

ACROSS

- 2 One of Europe's oldest and largest ethnic minority groups. Some of them are stateless.
- 9 A document that allows you to leave your country and enter another country, and to return back to your own country.
- 12 The set of main laws of a country, that all other laws must follow. These usually include everyone's rights in the country.
- 14 A child who is found somewhere, whose parents are unknown. These children can be at risk of statelessness if there are no good safeguards to protect against statelessness.
- 15 Unfair and bad treatment of people based on certain qualities of theirs, such as their skin colour, gender, religion or disability.
- 16 To identify as a girl/woman or a boy/man you are often asked "what is your ____?"

DOWN

- 1 Everyone has a right to this. We should all have the _____ of a country with which we have a strong bond, for example, because we were born there, our parents are from there and/or we live there.
- 3 The currency (money) of Bangladesh.
- 4 Entering basic information about someone – usually on an important occasion like birth or marriage - in a system of public records.
- 5 A minority group who have lived in Myanmar for centuries but are not recognised as nationals of Myanmar and are treated very badly.
- 6 Someone who is treated so badly in their own country, that they have to run away and seek safety in another country.
- 7 A vehicle with two wheels that moves with a pedalling movement.
- 8 The period of time before adulthood.
- 10 A person who is not recognised by any country as it's national, is a _____ person.
- 11 An exercise to obtain important information about all the people living in a country.
- 13 A spicy, sweet and milky tea commonly drunk in South Asia.

